

ARKANSAS MILITARY BASES

LITTLE ROCK AIR FORCE BASE (Jacksonville)

- Home to the largest C-130 fleet in the world
- Includes the 19th Airlift Wing, 314th Airlift Wing, Air National Guard's 189th Airlift Wing and Air Force Reserve Command's 913th Airlift Group
- Home to over 7,600 military and civilian personnel along with 5,300 family members and an estimated 53,000 retiree population

EBBING AIR NATIONAL GUARD BASE (Fort Smith)

- Home to the 188th Wing
- Home to F-35 Lightning II training center for Foreign Military Sales participants and the new location for the 425th Fighter Squadron, a Republic of Singapore air force F-16 Fighting Falcon training unit
- Operated by 1,000 National Guardsmen and Airmen

PINE BLUFF ARSENAL (White Hall)

- One of three U.S. Army Joint Munitions Command locations for production, storage, and demilitarization of conventional ammunition
- Manufactures chemical, incendiary, pyrotechnic, riot control, and smoke munitions used by all U.S. military services, other government agencies, and allied nations

CAMP ROBINSON /CAMP PIKE (North Little Rock)

- Headquarters to the Arkansas National Guard
- 33,000-acre training facility
- Includes the Arkansas National Guard Joint Forces Headquarters, the Professional Education Center and Marksmanship Training Unit

FORT CHAFFEE JOINT MANEUVER TRAINING CENTER (Fort Smith)

- An Arkansas National Guard installation with a 64,592-acre training site
- Designated as a regional selective training capability
- One of two installations with property on both sides of a major river
- Includes over 6,000 acres of impact area, capability for river crossing operations, and a 2,500-meter convoy live fire range with stationary and moving targets
- Numerous local, state and federal agencies and departments utilize the capacity to train at Fort Chaffee JMTC

Source: Arkansas Economic Development Commission, 2023